

Share your voice about education!

Who: Students, families, teachers, administrators, business people, community members, government officials, school district leaders

What: Join us for a free meal and community dialogue that showcases media created by students from Los Lunas High School and the School of Dreams Academy, SODA, and addresses issues related to increasing graduation rates

When: Tuesday March 24th 6pm – 8pm

Where: Los Lunas Transportation Center, 101 Courthouse Rd, Los Lunas

Why: To learn how we better support students to succeed

RSVP by calling 505-414-1952 or emailing ianesquibel@learningalliancenm.org to ensure we have dinner for you!

The Valencia Community Dialogue is part of the Stories of Learning Initiative - work with representative groups of students and community members, capturing and sharing stories, experiences and perspectives on school and education within the local community. Individuals with clear, insightful perspectives will be invited to a New Mexico PBS Town Hall filming Saturday April 18, 2015, in Albuquerque.

